

Titirangi Theatre Inc.

Incorporating Waitemata Theatre

What's coming up

Instead of a stage play, we have a novel change in our programming planned. Thinking about getting involved? Or wondering how to improve your skills? Our next production will be out of the usual - we have workshops on every area of theatre, from lighting design to scenic painting, improv to directing.

3 plays by Titirangi Theatre's acting classes

directed by John Goudge

Tickets $15/$10 www.titirangitheatre.co.nz

Notes from the director:

The aim is to provide a real theatre experience for our actor trainees. They are all quite incredible, from the youngest to the oldest. For many it is their first play. We've rehearsed the whole thing (largely) once a week at Monday night class (over 10 weeks), so this production is a short-term miracle.

About the plays – This strange programme of three short plays was inspired by the imagination of the students. Wolf was written in 2021 using improvisations & writings from the children, but sadly Covid19 curtailed our production. Three of those children are back this year, and with the addition of a couple of extra parts, Wolf (version 2) was born. This post-apocalyptic play reminds me of several TV series appearing on Netflix & the like.

Our adult actor trainees present Industrial Art & School Camp, two plays created after some improvised story-telling & a writing session with the students. Ironically some of the adults chose to act as children. Both plays have themes of pushing past obstacles, celebrating art, & finding resilience. They have a corny sit-com, sometimes soap-opera style. Enjoy.

I want to thank the parents & families of all our cast. Life is busy & you've made time to give a great gift. Thanks to Titirangi Theatre & Lopdell Precinct for making this possible, & those great friends behind the scenes, Graeme & Tony.

John Goudge (tutor/director)

Our next play

We are doing something a bit different for our next production slot. Rather than our usual play, we are going to be presenting a myriad of theatre-related events, workshops and performances. If you want to get involved but you aren't sure where to start, or if you'd like to learn more in a wide range of technical or performance areas, then this will be for you!

Wolf Art Camp

3 plays by Titirangi Theatre's acting classes

directed by John Goudge

Wolf - The world has been rocked by a meteor impact. Much of the population has been evacuated, but a group of street kids are left behind on the surface. Two sisters make an unlikely friendship as they try to survive.

Presented by Titirangi Theatre's children's acting class.

Interval - 15 minutes

Industrial Art - Grommet manufacturing company Walter and Riley is on the brink of closure. A series of hair-brained schemes to boost business have fallen flat. Can a failed artist provide the creative energy to save the factory?

Presented by Titirangi Theatre's acting class for adults.

Interval (minor) - 5 minutes

School Camp - Adults play children in this ridiculous account of a school camp gone wrong. The stressed-out teacher tries to organise a rag-tag bunch of misfit children, but accidents are just waiting to happen. As a sinister plot unfolds, not everyone is who they appear to be.

Presented by Titirangi Theatre's acting class for adults.

Acting classes with John Goudge – details of next year's programme are to be confirmed, but if you want to be on the waiting list for information, email John at gougedrama@gmail.com
